THE ANNIE WRIGHT SEMINARY
TACOMA, WASHINGTON

FROM STRENGTH TO STRENGTH

In Memory of KARL ERWIN WEISS, 1903-1957

whose life, work, and teaching were an expression of loyalty to the highest ideals of Truth, Beauty, and Love which he kept ever before us, and were an inspiration to those of us privileged to be his students.

DEDICATION

To those who, through their deep concern for the school, have made possible the new wing, and the Chapel of Saint Mary, we, the Class of 1958, proudly dedicate this our Shield.

RUTH JENKINS, L.H.D.

Headmistress

Cited June 6, 1958 by the Shattuck School, Faribault, Minnesota for her service to secondary education.

MISS JENKINS, it is your leadership, your insight, your insistence on high ideals that have made these past years important ones in our lives. We have loved this school; we have loved the spirit which pervades it, which comes from you. You have taught us to strive for excellence and have showed us the need for the love and strength derived from God. These things we cannot forget, and it is our desire and our certainty that, in the years to come, we shall go on "from strength to strength".

SENIORS

The red tie class was born in the kindergarten with Carol, but it did not really live until it entered the Upper School to the tune of its new class song, "O Fifty-eight!" In its Junior year it stopped growing and devoted its energies to "The Song of Bernadette", the sale of Sylvia's alligator jaws at Junior Sales, and an Italian Prom. Step songs and first walk-line initiated Senior Year. Then hours were spent making various and sundries for Carnival, the "Nutcracker Suite", headed by Joan Munroe. The Christmas Tea and movies for Service League, arranged by Deanna Poulsen, entertained the whole school. All winter and spring Fifty-eight watched the mail for college notifications. Then, suddenly, May Day came, and Queen of the May, Sally Spaulding, reigned over her court. The class moved with the year toward graduation; it looked back over its Seminary years, and it knew that although, perhaps, it hadn't been the most sophisticated of classes, it had certainly had the most fun.

ADVISORS: MISS JENKINS, MISS MCKAY

Oh, fifty-eight, we don't deny that we are great;
 Onward we go, opposing every kind of foe.
 Great we will stand, against the best in all the land!
 Red and White, we'll always fight;
 Go forward, ever forward, Annie Wright.

Oh, Red and White, our colors are so true and bright;
 Onward to fame and always honour our good name.
 Stand up for right, and, though the sky be dark with night,
 Red and White, we'll always fight;
 Go forward, ever forward, Annie Wright!

JUNIORS

"Enthusiasm" was the trademark of the Class of '59 as it embarked on its Junior year. Exploding from song and skit and remaining through hours of preparations for activities, it sparked the action of the entire class. Throughout the year any mention of Junior Sales brought grins of appreciation for the weekly and hilarious skits (courtesy of Robin) and for good food on Friday. Long weeks of rehearsal furtively guarded the secrets of just why "You Can't Take It With You" until performance night. The curtain calls were scarcely done when the "House of the Sugar Plum Fairy" tempted all sweet teeth at the Carnival. Winter term started with a splash at a party for Service League. Then followed minute investigations of colleges, instruction into the mysteries of "Senior Duties", and plans for THE Prom. Finally, on April 19, came that romantic evening on the Old Plantation. Decorating for May Day was hardly a past project when the class creativity was turned to Step Songs, the singing of which would make the Juniors Seniors.

It was a good year—full of work and activity—it was a year of contagion—everyone caught and held Enthusiasm.

SOPHOMORES

September found the Class of '60 awaiting the arrival of eight new members. Soon the new faces were familiar, each one a special part of '60. Gale Ehrlich was elected to Service League, Karen Warren to SAC; Sandy McCrea served on House Council. The year had begun! And with the whole library to care for, Carol Craft assumed responsibility for the library committee. There was much to do: Linda Larson organized the Christmas wrapping sale for Service League. Lynne Rubush steered the class through the making of animals for Carnival. The whole class worked to make the decorations for the Student Council Dance "Fascinating". Then, it was not long before the class was involved in another dance—it's own. The Freshman-Sophomore Hop, guided by Gale Ehrlich, was wonderful. In March thoughts turned to the faculty baby picture contest for Service League. Then it was time to greet dates and serve punch for the Prom; spring had really come—and at May Day the class beamed with pride as Gale and Peggy carried the American and Canadian Flags. And then—next year! The class is set to prove that its class song is right, that "each challenge is a victory."

FRESHMEN

As you look over the study hall at noon assembly you can see thirty-three yellow tie girls in the front rows. They are the Class of '61, the newest members of the Upper School. Their ideas, spirit, and zest have made them a happy, striving class, as their song shows—as their magazine drive showed, too. It was, under the leadership of Margi Angus and Sharon Staples, the most successful drive in years, and made a large contribution to the Service League fund. At Christmas Carnival they were again successful—with a class booth. In the winter they planned and carried out a "Carousel" theme for the Freshman-Sophomore Hop, and the whole school had a wonderful time. Looking back they are proud of what they have done. Looking forward they are confident of going from "Strength to Strength".

MISS JENKINS, MISS FITZWILLIAMS,
MISS BAKER

The Student Council brings together, under the leadership of the student body officers, administrative faculty, and student representatives of each phase of school life. The Council works to co-ordinate the student body as a happy whole by recognizing, discussing, and providing for the fulfillment of will and needs of any part of the student body. As an individual each council member tries to bring to that part of the student life which she represents not only plans, projects and rules for technical administration of the school community but also ideals of honourable behavior and concern for that community. Each council member assumes with her office the responsibility for providing leadership in the practice of these ideals.

HOUSE COUNCIL

SEATED: Joanne Stevenson, Sandra McCrea, Carol Shanks, Nancy Ashford Chairman.

ON FLOOR: Iris Briedis, Mary Wearin Secretary, Julia Mackay, Barbara Staples.

ADVISORS:

MRS. WILSON, MRS. BECKER, MISS JENKINS,
MISS FITZWILLIAMS, MRS. MONKS, MISS BAKER

House Council is in charge of the smooth running of the house affairs. The corridor representatives and proctors sometimes find it a thankless job to maintain order, but, nevertheless, theirs is an indispensable service. Their signs for "clean up week" are funny, their fashion shows are fun; their work for the Seminary is invaluable.

SERVICE LEAGUE COMMITTEE

Chairman: SUZANNE JEPPESEN
Secretary: JILL PHETTEPLACE

Treasurer: SHARON STAPLES
Advisor: MISS BAKER

REPRESENTATIVES: Sandy Brines, Gale Ehrlich, Nancy Johnson, Betsy Minthorn, Martha Peterson, Betsy Phillips, Peggy Yates.

This committee directs the work of the Seminary Service League of which all students of the Middle and Upper Schools are members. The League, in contributing time, money, and gifts to its many projects all over the world, spreads the Christian ideals of the school and gives an opportunity to help less fortunate people wherever and whenever they may be. The League is supported by the realization that "you can give without loving, but you cannot love without giving".

SEMINARY ATHLETIC COUNCIL

President: SHERRY BROWN
Vice-president: SALLY SPAULDING

Secretary: HEDDA SCHAFER
Treasurer: LINDA TOMPKINS

Advisor: MISS ST. JOHN

MEMBERS: Cynthia Fanshawe, Linda Hult, Kate Johnson, Ellen Osborne, Lani Schuh, Judith Sibbald, Karen Warren.

The Seminary Athletic Council, supervising hockey, basketball, and other athletic activities ranging from posture contests to picnics, plays an important part in the smooth running of the school. Every "SAC" girl, whether she be a representative or an officer, is concerned with each member of the school family. Because of this, SAC plans a great variety of activities so that each girl will find her part in the athletic branch of the Seminary.

When thinking of Raynor Guild, weekly meetings, Thursday work parties, Christmas and Easter Carol Services, and serving at Holy Communion come to mind. The guild feels it is a great privilege to have the responsibility for the care and upkeep of both Raynor Chapel and the Chapel of Saint Mary. The service done in God's house, in God's service, comes from love for God and for the school. Raynor Guild tries to keep in mind that "duty makes us do things well, love makes us do things beautifully."

Carol Craft	Patsy Gibson	Susan Johnson	Mimi Seeley	Peggy Yates

The combination of a good voice and good citizenship makes membership in choir an honored position. Besides leading the music of the daily morning and evening chapel services, the choir also sings at other churches, hospitals, and homes.

After the initiation of new members, Masque began to prepare for its play, "Seven Sisters", which was a tremendous success. Besides the play the Masque members worked on their plays and skits, and they presented a one-act play. Climaxing the year was the Masque Banquet.

The Ivy Vine is the literary magazine of the school. It includes selections of prose, poetry, and art work submitted by students of the Lower, Middle, and Upper Schools. In addition to publishing the magazine the Ivy Vine group discusses and criticizes any creative material submitted to it for consideration.

MODERN DANCE GROUP

Modern dance has become increasingly popular in the last few years, this year reaching an all-time peak. The group works both on techniques and on creative expression through the dance, performing for the school and for outside groups. For those interested in self-expression modern dance offers an invigorating, exciting, and rewarding outlet.

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater Seminary fair,
May achievements crown thy labors, is our earnest prayer.

Deep and true as those blue waters thou art reared above,
May the characters thòu moldest, hold thee in their love.

Pure as yonder snow-clad mountains where our glances fall,
May we in the years to follow, answer to thy call.

Chorus:

Hearts turned toward our Alma Mater, may our lives at length
Prove thy daughters bear thy motto, "On from strength to strength".
